NOTES

25X1

25X1

Communist China - Asia: Foreign Minister Chen Yi will make several stops on his way home from a scheduled visit to Indonesia in mid-April. Stops will include Pakistan, where Chen will sign the final protocol of the Sino-Pakistan border agreement of March 1963, and Afghanistan, where details of Pei-ping's offer of economic aid made last fall probably will be worked out.

Nationalist China: The death yesterday of Chinese Nationalist Vice President Chen Cheng, who once was a leading contender for power, will facilitate Defense Minister General Chiang Ching-kuo's eventual succession to leadership on Taiwan. Premier Yen Chia-kan, who now becomes the constitutional successor to the 77-year-old President Chiang Kai-shek, lacks political strength to bar the further rise of Ching-kuo. The vice presidency will probably remain vacant until next February when the National Assembly is scheduled to elect both a president and vice president.

EEC: Leading EEC officials doubt that there is any chance of agreement within the EEC on a common credit policy along the restrictive lines proposed by West Germany. Bonn would set a normal 5-year credit period and in exceptional cases would extend this to a maximum of seven years for the USSR and eight years for Eastern Europe. Paris has called the German proposals "too far reaching" and restrictive of community freedom of action. The Netherlands Government has now announced that Dutch exporters may allow up to ten years if necessary to meet foreign competition for Eastern European trade.

Honduras: Air force chief Escalon and other high-ranking air force officers were removed from their posts on 4 March. Escalon has been at odds with the regime, especially with Ricardo Zuniga, Chief of Government Lopez' powerful adviser, while the opposition Liberals have favored Escalon for the position as chief of the armed forces. Dissatisfaction with his removal and reported arrest as well as with the fraudulent constituent assembly election may bring the Liberals to strong antigovernment action, perhaps when the assembly meets on 16 March.
